Itinerary Days 10

• Day 1: Arrival at Buenos Aires

On arrival at the airport, you'll be met with a friendly "Hola" from your Argentine host and transferred to the hotel.

Start point

Airport Arrivals Gate, Aeropuerto Internacional de Ezeiza - Ministro Pistarini (EZE), Au.
Teniente General Pablo Ricchieri, Ezeiza, Buenos Aires Province B1802, Argentina

• Day 2: Buenos Aires sightseeing

After breakfast you will go for Buenos Aires Sightseeing and discover the history and culture of this amazing city in a fun and interactive way. This guided tour, takes you through city parks, past French-style mansions, and national monuments as you visit the neighborhoods of Puerto Madero, San Telmo, and more.

• Day 3: Buenos Aires

After breakfast, enjoy the entire day at leisure to immerse in the cultural splendors of this fascinating city setting as you wish. Why not spice up your evening with our optional Tango show? Experience one of the best tango shows in Buenos Aires, along with a traditional Argentine feast. The passionate, sensual dance will sweep you away as you learn about the history of the tango show, its music and traditions. The satin dress rises and falls, flows and ebbs, creating light and shadows across the stage, like waves on the shore. During this precious moment, the world stops as body and soul become one.

• Day 4: Buenos Aires - Foz Do Iguacu

After breakfast, take a private transfer to Buenos Aires Airport and board your flight to Puerto Iguazu. Arrive at Cataratas del Iguazú International Airport, where you'll be transferred with a guide to the hotel. We will do the Iguazu Falls visit on Day 5 from the Brazilian side (inclusive in the price) however, you also have the opportunity to join our optional tour below to witness the fall from the Argentinian side.

Experience the energy of Iguazu Falls in Argentina before crossing the border into Brazil, you can opt to experience the Argentinian side of Iguazu Falls. Enjoy a walk along the Falls Trail and view the waterfall from different angles until you arrive at the walkways that give you a close up look at La Garganta del Diablo (Devil's Throat). This is just the beginning of what is to come: 275 falls of raging water and splendid grandeur!

• Day 5: Brazilian Side Iguazu Falls

"Unlike Any Waterfall on Earth" - CNN Iguazu translates as "the big water" in the language of the Tupi-Guarani natives and in a hidden corner of Paraná, facing 275 falls of raging water that rise dramatically from the Iguazu River, the city of Iguazu is set against a backdrop of great natural beauty. You might have visited other magnificent waterfalls before, but nothing will prepare you for when you come face to face with the world's largest waterfall system.

Taller than Niagara Falls and twice as wide, Iguazu Falls, named a UNESCO World Natural Heritage Site, claimed another title as one of the "New Seven Wonders of Nature" by the New Seven Wonders of the World Foundation in 2011. Magic is in the air as we arrive at the Visitors' Center.

Discover one of nature's greatest wonders as you behold the sight of a rainbow stretching its transparent rays over the group of monsters frothing at the mouth. Even the late U.S First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt was so impressed when she saw the spouting giants that she said "Poor Niagara!" Explore the splendor of the falls, walking along grated walkways of metal and climbing steps as you view the thundering water.

• Day 6: Foz Do Iguacu- Rio De Janeiro

After breakfast, you will get transfer to Foz do Iguazu International Airport for a flight to Rio de Janeiro Airport. On arrival, you will be transferred to Hotel.
